

REDISCOVER

It was He who gave some to be apostles, some to be prophets, some to be evangelists, and some to be pastors and teachers to prepare God's people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up.

— Ephesians 4:11-12 (NIV)

HOW DOES AFI SERVE LOCAL CHURCHES?

Every church that relates to the AFI network does so voluntarily. AFI has no legal control over any local church. It is the responsibility of the local eldership to govern the local church. AFI is not a denomination; but rather works relationally to provide local churches with biblical covering.

In the early church, the function of the ascension ministries was to train, equip, instruct, correct, and encourage the church. This is our desire today. Where there is a need, we want to be of assistance. We are prepared to help train and ordain leaders, to see the local eldership emerge and mature, and to see the local church function as a healthy expression of the Body.

AFI MISSION

AFI exists to provide apostolic covering for the equipping and strengthening of local churches and their leaders for the advancement of the Kingdom of God. AFI is related to the Apostolic Church, a worldwide, trinitarian network of churches that has its roots in the Welch Revival. AFI VISION

Our vision is to see strong local churches walking in the ways of God, having proper government and effective ministries. We desire to see churches have a vision for the kingdom of God, His eternal purposes and a mission for their local community and world. We encourage churches to function as a body where each individual member is equipped and released into the ministry of service that God has given.

We believe that by the Holy Spirit's leading and the proper functioning of the five-fold ascension gifts, this vision can be realized.
